A woman with dark hair, wearing a black wide-brimmed hat and a bright yellow, textured sweater, is seen from behind. She is looking out over a river with autumn foliage in the background. The scene is bathed in warm, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning. The water in the river reflects the surrounding trees and sky. The overall mood is peaceful and scenic.

Enjoy many amenities within walking distance

For families, Baker Hall is an excellent lifestyle choice. Its central location within Navan means that schools, supermarkets, restaurants, pubs, retail outlets and more are just a short stroll from your front door.

Navan Town Centre shopping mall is just up the road. Enjoy a browse through the many boutiques and shops along the way, or treat the kids to a movie in the cineplex – it's all just a stroll away.

Plenty to see and do

The beautiful countryside surrounding Navan is ideal for exploring at the weekend. Walk in the footsteps of legendary kings and heroes at the Hill of Tara, just a few kilometers away, or experience the magic of the winter solstice at Newgrange. If relaxation is more your style, treat yourself to a spa day in Bellinter House, Knightsbrook, Tankardstown House, Ardboyne Hotel or Dunboyne Castle, all just a short drive from Baker Hall.

Facilities for every age group

As Ireland's fifth-biggest town, Navan is packed with great schools and facilities for every member of the family. For the tiny tots, several well-established childcare options are close by, including Giraffe Childcare, Wonder Kids Montessori and Playmates Pre School. For the older kids, Gaelscoil Éanna, Ard Rí Community National School, St Anne's Loreto Primary School and St Stephen's Primary School are just some of the primary school options within walking distance. The teens also have plenty to choose from, with Beaufort College, St Joseph's Mercy Secondary School and Loreto Secondary School only a few of the well-established schools in the immediate area.

As a well-established community for families, Navan is simply packed with great sports clubs and leisure facilities. GAA, rugby, cricket and football clubs are located close to Baker Hall, while golfers can choose from a wealth of excellent clubs, including Royal Tara, Headfort Golf Club, Killeen Castle and Knightsbrook Golf Course. Alternatively, explore the excellent greenway paths along by the River Boyne – this is a popular route for runners, walkers and cyclists alike.

Bright kitchens feature french doors that open the dining area onto the garden.
