Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for the update.

For delivery of this equipment, please note we'd like these delivered to our [REDACTED] nt to our office on 2nd floor. Kevin will have building security made aware of this.

We can take all the docks+cables in one delivery as soon as available.

We will not need any EIT resources this weekend. It looks like we'll need EIT resources from next week. Friday 8th Marh is likely [REDACTED]. But we will need assistance deploying laptops quickly. Kevin will advise a schedule.

So to summarise -

- Video is OK
- Network is inconsistent. When connected, did it disconnect and reconnect OK?
- Charging is inconsistent.

The challenge is deploying these quickly after we deploy the docking stations.

Hi [Redacted],

Thanks for the initiative to get a demo unit. Do you have the spec?

I'm most concerned with the [Redacted] docks and if they're going to be compatible with the [Redacted] models. With hotdesking we don't have the luxury of equipping desks as either a [Redacted] desk.

If [Redacted] could send in a couple of docks this week, we could begin testing. I need to find users of each model to test with.
